

Volunteering at the League

Instructions for PC and Mac

The Sonoran Arts League provides many opportunities to get involved by volunteering in support of League-sponsored events and activities. Volunteering is a great way to engage with other members in support of the League and the community. Some events, such as the Hidden in the Hills Artist Studio Tour, require a certain number of volunteer hours. The Volunteer portal allows you to sign up, track your commitments, and review your volunteer history and hours.

You DO NOT need to be a member to volunteer with the Sonoran Arts League, but YOU MUST BE A MEMBER TO HAVE YOUR HOURS LOGGED so they can be counted toward League events that have volunteering requirements and to allow for volunteer acknowledgement by the League.

If you are NOT a member of the Sonoran Arts League, go to the Membership page of our website (<https://sonoranartsleague.org/membership/>) and scroll down to JOIN or contact our office at 480-575-6624 for assistance.

NOTES:

- The screen shots on the following pages are from a PC running Chrome on Windows 11. If you are using a Mac or a different PC browser, the top of your screen may differ slightly, but the directions and steps are the same.
- Computer and technical help are available at the Desert Foothills Library every Wednesday at 2 pm.

Setting Up Your Volunteer Password

Processing new League memberships can take up to two weeks. Once your membership information has been entered into the League's Volunteer portal—the place where you sign up to volunteer and have your hours logged—you will receive an introductory email with a link to the portal's Login page (step 4). You'll enter a temporary password, which you'll then be prompted to change. We recommend using your League membership password as your volunteer password.

How to Get to the Volunteer Portal

Here's how to get to the Volunteer portal any time, once you are set up.

1. Open your browser (Chrome and Safari work best), type www.sonoranartsleague.org into the URL bar at the top and press the Enter key to display the Sonoran Arts League's Home page, shown below.
2. Hover your mouse over Get Involved in the top menu bar to display the menu choices and click Volunteer.

3. On the Volunteer page scroll down past the image banner and click the Sign Up To Volunteer Here button.
