

CANCELLATION & REFUND POLICY

- If a class or workshop is cancelled by the Sonoran Art League, the student will receive a full refund.
- If a student withdraws from class at least 8 calendar days prior to class, they will receive a full refund, less a $25.00 administration fee.
- If the student withdraws from class 7 calendar days or less prior to class, the student will receive a refund equal to 50% of the class fee less a $25.00 administration fee. Please note if your class includes a materials/supplies fee, Sonoran Arts League is unable to refund any portion of this fee for student withdrawals/cancellations occurring 7 calendar days or less prior to class.
- No refunds will be issued if the student withdraws from class 48 hours or less from the class start date.
- The Sonoran Arts League reserves the right to cancel or modify a class or provide a substitute instructor at any time.
- The Sonoran Arts League reserves the right to remove or require the withdrawal of any student whose conduct is detrimental to the learning environment without a refund.
- The Sonoran Arts League is not required to provide makeup classes or issue refunds to students who miss portions or days of classes or workshops due to illness, emergencies, or issues beyond the control of the instructor or League.
- There are no refunds or credits issued to students who do not show up or withdraw from a class or workshop once the class or workshop has begun.
- All student fees for tuition and materials must be paid before the class or workshop starts.
- A fee of $35 will be charged for any checks returned for insufficient funds.